Special Education Law and Advocacy One-Day Conference

(includes two books and lunch)

One-day special education law and advocacy programs focus on four areas:

- Special Education Law, rights and responsibilities
- Tests and measurements to measure progress & regression
- SMART IEPs
- Tactics & strategies for effective advocacy

Many areas will be covered in this one-day conference. Some of those are as follows:

Extended School Year, Least Restrictive Environment/Mainstreaming/Inclusion, Private Placements, Statewide Assessment Evaluations and IEP's
Response to Treatment Interventions (RTI)
Prior Written Notice, Procedural Safeguards Notice, Mediation, Due Process Hearing, Appeal, Discipline Section 504, ADA, FERPA
NCLB, No Child Left Behind
Litigation, Pertinent Special Ed Case Law
Special Ed Advocacy for the Parent, Advocate, and Parent's Attorney
Legal, systemic and "school culture" obstacles to compliance with IDEA
The Parent as the Special Ed Manager and Expert

Mr. Steedman's practice is devoted primarily to the representation of children with disabilities. He has represented his clients in administrative due process hearings and state and federal courts.

In addition to a law degree from the University of Maryland, Mr. Steedman has a Masters Degree in Social Work. For several years, he served as a Due Process Hearing Officer in special education cases. He is an active member of the Council of Parent Attorneys and Advocates \(COPAA\) and has been presenting for Wrightslaw for a number of years.
